The lessee herby authorises the lessor to use the same credit/debit card provided for payment of the vehicle for the payment of the holding deposit. 4.3. In the event that the lessee returns the vehicle undamaged and/or has not incurred any unpaid fees and/or has not incurred any charges and/or has fully complied with the terms and conditions of this rental agreement then the lessor will return the holding deposit by crediting the same credit/debit card used when the payment of the holding deposit was taken. 4.4. In the event of any discrepancies in the return of the deposit amount the lessee must make a claim in writing within 60 days of the end of the rental period. 4.5. The lessee should allow 28 working days for the return of all or part of the holding deposit to be credited to their account.

5. RETURNING THE VEHICLE, ADDITIONAL COSTS AND DAMAGE CHARGES

5.1. At the end of the rental period or any pre-agreed extended rental period the lessee must return the vehicle to the lessor at the pre-arranged location place. 5.1.1. If the lessee keeps the vehicle beyond the date and time that the vehicle is due back then the lessee will become liable for an late return fee plus our standard Administration Fee plus the current daily rental fee for the vehicle for each day or part thereof that the vehicle is overdue. 5.1.2. The lessee may also become liable for any tracing and recovery charges incurred by the lessor. 5.2. The lessee must return the vehicle to the lessor in a clean and tidy condition. 5.2.1. If the vehicle is returned by the lessee to the lessor excessively dirty the lessee will become liable for a valeting fee plus our standard Administration Fee 5.3. The lessee must return the vehicle to the lessor with the same level of fuel as the vehicle contained at the commencement of the rental period. 5.3.1. If the vehicle is returned with less fuel then the lessee will become liable for the cost of the additional fuel and will also be subjected to our standard administration fee 5.4. The lessee must return to the lessor any additional items hired in the condition in which they were hired. 5.4.1. If the additional items hired by the lessee from the lessor are not returned or are returned damaged then the lessee will become liable for the full replacement cost of these items. 5.5. The lessee herby authorises the lessor to deduct any fees charges and costs incurred by the lessee in respect of 5.1 to 5.4 above from the holding deposit and if the holding deposit is insufficient to cover these, the lessee herby authorises the lessor to charge the balance of these costs to the same credit/debit card as used for the payment of the vehicle. 5.6. The lessee must return the vehicle to the lessor together with its all of its tyres, tools accessories, equipment and/or the vehicles contents undamaged or without any additional damage as detailed on the damage check list. 5.6.1. In the event of any loss or damage incurred to the vehicle or its tyres, tools accessories, equipment and/or the vehicles contents then the holding deposit will be retained in full by the lessor until liability and the cost of the damage has been assessed. 5.6.2. If the loss and/or damage was caused the lessee, and did not involve any other party the lessor will submit an invoice to the lessee detailing the full repair and loss costs and the lessee herby authorises the lessor to deduct the amount of the invoice from the holding deposit, if the holding deposit is insufficient, the lessee herby authorises the lessor to charge the balance to the same credit/debit card as used for the payment of the vehicle. 5.6.3. If the loss and/or damage involved a third party the lessee may become liable for the cost of damage caused by the accident up to the insurance excess as detailed under this rental agreement - see section 6. 5.7. The lessee is not entitled to any refund of any rental charges paid in respect of the unused rental period if the vehicle is returned by the lessee to the lessor earlier than the specified return time and date.

6. NEGLIGENCE, INSURANCE COVER AND ACCIDENT PROCEDURES

6.1. The lessee and any additional driver(s) herby undertake to ensure that the vehicle is always locked when unattended, and to take all reasonable steps to prevent loss of or damage to the vehicle, or its tyres, tools accessories, equipment and/or additional items hired and/or the vehicles contents. 6.2. At the commencement of the rental period the vehicle will have been provided to the lessee with the correct tyre pressure, engine oil level, battery fluid level, screen wash level, coolant level and automatic transmission level (where applicable), it is the responsibility of the lessee to ensure these are maintained throughout the duration of the rental period. 6.3. The insurance cover provided by the lessor for the vehicle does not provide cover if the lessee has been negligent and/or has not adhered to the condition 6.1 and 6.2 above, consequently the lessee will become responsible for any damage caused to the vehicle as a result and the lessee herby authorises the lessor to deduct the cost of any damage incurred from the holding deposit or in the event that the cost is more than the holding deposit herby authorises the lessor to debit the additional amount from the same credit/debit card as used for the rental payment. 6.4. The insurance cover provided by the lessor for the vehicle does not cover the lessee for any loss or damage incurred in respect of the following: 6.4.1. damage to wheels, wheel trims, mirrors, aerials, parcel shelf and windscreens; and/or loss of keys and subsequent replacement costs; and/or loss of radio, radio/CD and any damage caused by the theft of such; and/or filling the vehicle with incorrect fuel and subsequent costs and/or damage to tyres; NB If the lessee replaces a tyre it must be of the same make and specifications as the original; and/or loss or damage to the spare wheel if provided and/or loss or damage to a tyre damage repair kit. 6.4.2. In the event that any loss or damage is caused by the lessee as detained in 6.4.1 above, the lessee herby authorises the lessor to deduct the cost from the holding deposit or if the cost is more than the holding deposit to debit the additional amount from the same credit/debit card as used for the payment of the vehicle. 6.5. The insurance cover provided for the vehicle in the event of an accident may not provide cover to the lessee in full; there is an amount for which the lessee will not be covered this is called the "Damage Excess". 6.5.1. The damage excess under this rental agreement is defined on the rental agreement on the vehicle and the lessee is liable for the amount of the damage excess in the event of an accident. 6.5.2. In the event that the vehicle is involved in an accident then the insurance excess under this rental agreement will become due immediately from the lessee to the lessor and the lessee herby authorises the lessor to deduct the damage excess amount from the same credit/debit card as the holding deposit was taken or if the holding deposit has been retained then the balance up to the insurance excess amount. 6.5.3. In the event of a non-fault claim the lessor's insurers may be able to recover the uninsured losses arising out of a claim from the third party's insurers including any excess the lessee is liable for. Consequently the lessee may be entitled to be reimbursed for their share of any uninsured loss recovered made by the lessor's insurers from the third party's insurers. 6.5.4. In the event that the lessee has purchased insurance from a third party company to insure against the "Damage Excess" the lessee must pay the lessor immediately the full amount of the "Damage Excess" and claim the value of the "Damage Excess" against the insurance they have purchased from third party company. 6.6. The lessee must inform the lessor within 24hours in the event of an accident and/or if the vehicle becomes damaged lost or stolen. 6.7. In the event of an accident the lessee is required to safeguard the interest of the lessor and the lessor's vehicle and adhere to the instructions contained within the vehicle and complete an accident insurance form and obtain a police report and then deliver this to the lessor as soon as possible after an accident. 6.8. The lessee herby agrees that in the event that the lessor makes a claim for any loss or damage caused to the vehicle under the lessor's insurance policy then a copy of this rental agreement may be passed to the lessor's insurers; their authorised agents; third party insurers and/or any solicitors involved in the settlement of any claim.

7. LIABILITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

7.1. During the rental period or extended rental period of the vehicle the lessee and/or any additional driver(s) will become liable for, and responsible for, the payment of certain charges and or fees in respect of any and all offences incurred in the Country from which the vehicle was rented and/or the Countries in which the lessee has been authorise to drive the vehicle under this rental agreement as if the lessee and/or any additional drivers were the owner of the vehicle. The type of charges and or fees which the lessee and/or additional driver(s) may be liable include but are not limited to the following: 7.1.1. Any fixed penalty charges incurred in respect to a breach of a road traffic violation and/or in breach of any driving legislation, such as speeding fines and/or any excess charges incurred for the non-payment of such. 7.1.2. The insurance cover provided by the lessor for the vehicle does not provide cover if the lessee has been negligent and/or has not adhered to the condition 6.1 and 6.2 above, consequently the lessee will become responsible for any damage caused to the vehicle as a result and the lessee herby authorises the lessor to deduct the cost of any damage incurred from the holding deposit or in the event that the cost is more than the holding deposit herby authorises the lessor to debit the additional amount from the same credit/debit card as used for the rental payment. 6.4. The insurance cover provided by the lessor for the vehicle does not cover the lessee for any loss or damage incurred in respect of the following: 6.4.1. damage to wheels, wheel trims, mirrors, aerials, parcel shelf and windscreens; and/or loss of keys and subsequent replacement costs; and/or loss of radio, radio/CD and any damage caused by the theft of such; and/or filling the vehicle with incorrect fuel and subsequent costs and/or damage to tyres; NB If the lessee replaces a tyre it must be of the same make and specifications as the original; and/or loss or damage to the spare wheel if provided and/or loss or damage to a tyre damage repair kit. 6.4.2. In the event that any loss or damage is caused by the lessee as detained in 6.4.1 above, the lessee herby authorises the lessor to deduct the cost from the holding deposit or if the cost is more than the holding deposit to debit the additional amount from the same credit/debit card as used for the payment of the vehicle. 6.5. The insurance cover provided for the vehicle in the event of an accident may not provide cover to the lessee in full; there is an amount for which the lessee will not be covered this is called the "Damage Excess". 6.5.1. The damage excess under this rental agreement is defined on the rental agreement on the vehicle and the lessee is liable for the amount of the damage excess in the event of an accident. 6.5.2. In the event that the vehicle is involved in an accident then the insurance excess under this rental agreement will become due immediately from the lessee to the lessor and the lessee herby authorises the lessor to deduct the damage excess amount from the same credit/debit card as the holding deposit was taken or if the holding deposit has been retained then the balance up to the insurance excess amount. 6.5.3. In the event of a non-fault claim the lessor's insurers may be able to recover the uninsured losses arising out of a claim from the third party's insurers including any excess the lessee is liable for. Consequently the lessee may be entitled to be reimbursed for their share of any uninsured loss recovered made by the lessor's insurers from the third party's insurers. 6.5.4. In the event that the lessee has purchased insurance from a third party company to insure against the "Damage Excess" the lessee must pay the lessor immediately the full amount of the "Damage Excess" and claim the value of the "Damage Excess" against the insurance they have purchased from third party company. 6.6. The lessee must inform the lessor within 24hours in the event of an accident and/or if the vehicle becomes damaged lost or stolen. 6.7. In the event of an accident the lessee is required to safeguard the interest of the lessor and the lessor's vehicle and adhere to the instructions contained within the vehicle and complete an accident insurance form and obtain a police report and then deliver this to the lessor as soon as possible after an accident. 6.8. The lessee herby agrees that in the event that the lessor makes a claim for any loss or damage caused to the vehicle under the lessor's insurance policy then a copy of this rental agreement may be passed to the lessor's insurers; their authorised agents; third party insurers and/or any solicitors involved in the settlement of any claim.

7. LIABILITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

7.1. During the rental period or extended rental period of the vehicle the lessee and/or any additional driver(s) will become liable for, and responsible for, the payment of certain charges and or fees in respect of any and all offences incurred in the Country from which the vehicle was rented and/or the Countries in which the lessee has been authorise to drive the vehicle under this rental agreement as if the lessee and/or any additional drivers were the owner of the vehicle. The type of charges and or fees which the lessee and/or additional driver(s) may be liable include but are not limited to the following: 7.1.1. Any fixed penalty charges incurred in respect to a breach of a road traffic violation and/or in breach of any driving legislation, such as speeding fines and/or any excess charges incurred for the non-payment of such. 7.1.2. Any road, bridge or tunnel tolls or excess charges incurred for the non-payment of such. 7.1.3. Area or road congestion fees and/or penalty charges incurred for the non-payment of such. 7.1.4.
